Foiled Assassination 3 Czech Ministers

By A. I. Goldberg

PRAGUE, Sept. 11. (AP)—The interior ministry announced today that an attempt to assassinate three Czech cabinet ministers with explosive packets disguised as perfume had failed yesterday.

NEWSPAPERS CALLED the assassination attempt a political plot, but fixed no specific blame. The three targets for the packets were Vice-Premier Peter Zenkl, chairman of the National Socialist party, Foreign Minister Jan Masaryk, and Prokop Drtikol, justice minister, who also is a National Socialist.

Security police, searching for a man known to have mailed the three packets, credited Vachal Spilke, 50, Czech legislator and veteran of the Russian revolution, with averting the death of the three men by his quick thinking.

Only one of the bombs arrived at its destination, the office of Zenkl. His personal secretary, Franka Ambroz, escaped death because Spilke had spotted a suspicious bit of string, which proved to have been the key to the explosive.

THE BOMB, which was said to have enough strength to destroy a whole room, did not explode and similar packages addressed to Masaryk and Drtikol were intercepted before delivery.

Bitter Speech by Gromyko

Charges U. S. Seeking World Atomic Trust

By Francis W. Carpenter

LAKE SUCCESS, N. Y. (AP)—Russia charged yesterday that the United States is attempting to create a world atomic trust and dictate its atomic will on all nations. The United States denied the accusation as "false."

FOR 20 MINUTES Andrei A. Gromyko, Soviet delegate, hurled charges after charge against the United States in the bitterest speech yet heard in any United Nations atomic energy organization.

He rejected the second report of the U. N. Atomic Energy Commission, which was up for final action, as "completely unacceptable." He said the United States was trying to "undermine" attempts to achieve unanimous agreement on atomic control while at the same time "voicing 'high sounding' phrases for the purpose of deceiving the public."

The commission adjourned until the next meeting.

Name Assistant Fur Farm Official

The appointment of Donald Russell Frazer to the position of assistant fur farm supervisor, was announced Thursday by Hon. D. B. Macdonald, minister of agriculture.

A native of Edmonton, Mr. Frazer has operated a fur farm in the district since 1934. He was formerly assistant manager of the John Keith fur farm supervisor.

Expects Threshing Resume Next Week

Threshing operations in the Edmonton area have been held up since the heavy downpour last week-end, but are likely to start again by the first of next week, E. M. Putnam, director of agricultural extension said Thursday.

Mr. Putnam stated that the heavy rain certainly did not help matters any good, and saw possibilities of the grain being affected.

Grainers are being asked in areas south and east of the city, to keep their threshing machines in these areas.

Willness May Be UN Representative

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—(CP)—Canada representative on the Security Council of the United Nations, the Londoner, was found to be Dana Willness, one of the most experienced and competent members of the diplomatic service, or General A. G. L. McNaughton, according to press indications.

It is expected—although it is not certain yet—that the name of Willness will appear in the next session of the UN general assembly opening in New York next week.

Canada will be represented by a two-man team.

Point of View
OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—(CP)—The federal affairs department announced today that Count Carlo di Casale, Italian ambassador here for the last year, has been appointed first deputy Italian ambassador to Canada.

Try to Fire U. N. Consulate

Jewish Refugees Taken From Ship at Hamburg

REUTERS. The U.N. consulate in Cairo, Sept. 11.—(CP)—Large crowds of demonstrators today tried to set fire to the British consulate in Port Said, atoned the American consulate there and destroyed the statue of Ferdinand de Lesseps, the French engineer who built the Suez canal following failure by the United Nations Security Council to order British troops out of Egypt.

THE DEMONSTRATIONS occurred at Port Said, in the British occupied canal zone, early in the morning.

The demonstrators began marching through Port Said soon after the Security Council's vote to reach a decision in the British-Egyptian case here known, shooting down the statue of Ferdinand de Lesseps, the French engineer who built the Suez canal following failure by the United Nations Security Council to order British troops out of Egypt.

DISTRICT NEWS IN BRIEF

Expect Early Start On Vermilion Hall

VERMILION, Sept. 11.—Work on the Memorial Hall to be built here will commence in the near future, it was reported recently at the first regular fall meeting of the Vermilion Canadian Legion, held in the curling rink.

S.C. Heckbert, who was reporting for the building committee, stated that steel for the new hall has arrived and that the brick would be here this week.

It is expected that the lower story of the new hall will be ready to use sometime in November.

Report from the financial committee revealed that the finances of the Legion were in good condition.

It was decided at the meeting to hold a church parade on the Sunday before Thanksgiving Day. It will be at the Salvation Army service and all cadets and reserve army members will be invited to attend.

Other matters dealt with at the meeting included the enlargement of the Soldiers' Plot in the cemetery and the provincial command's project to secure a summer camp for aged veterans.

Draw Benefits And—30 Days in Jail
The making of false statements to draw unemployment insurance brought jail terms for two men in city police court Wednesday afternoon. They were Ross, 1022 1/2 street and Peter Kowal, 9614 102 avenue. Both were given 30 days imprisonment at Fort Saskatchewan jail.

Bosse was charged that on three occasions he made false statements and drew a total of $204.00 insurance. Of this amount he made restitution of $8.16 and the magistrate ordered him to make restitution of the remaining sum or spend an additional 14 days in jail.

Kowal had repaid the $15.60 he had drawn. Court was told that on four occasions he had made false statements. For this charge under the insurance act a jail term is the minimum penalty.

Girl Saves Family By Prompt Act
CALGARY, Sept. 11.—(CP)—Housed from sleep by their alert 19-year-old daughter who spread an alarm when she was awakened by smoke, a Calgary family of five fled to safety when fire broke out in a tool shed adjoining their two-room dwelling in South Calgary about 11 o'clock last night.

Occupants of the house were Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Bulmer and their three children, Stanley, 10, Doris, 14, and Irene, 10. The latter was credited by her family and neighbors with doing much to save the Bulmer home.

Chancellor Deplores Youth Attitude
SASKATOON, Sept. 11.—(CP)—H. C. Farthing, chancellor of the Calgary diocese, last night told the Church of England's Council for Social Service and the General Synod's Executive Council that the difference in appearance of persons facing court charges as compared with a few years ago is "perfectly shocking."

"You see, clean-cut youths of 17 to 21 on charges of burglary, house-breaking, and so on, swagger into the dock and toss their heads. If some one strangles him, they swagger out again," he deplored.

Await Next Big Storm

Hurricane-Busting Effort Planned by U.S. Scientists

MIAMI, Fla., Sept. 11.—(AP)—Scientists and the United States Navy's hurricane hunters are awaiting the opportunity to become history's first hurricane-busters.

The next great tropical storm to whirl through the Atlantic, the Caribbean or the Gulf of Mexico will be dusted with carbon tetrachloride, dry ice, silver iodide, or some other weather crystal which—perhaps—will condense its water vapors, cause a record-smashing rainfall at sea, and dissipate the great swirling air mass.

It will be a cautious experiment at first, because nobody quite knows what will happen when the tremendous energy stored up in a great hurricane is tackled. The experiment may not work at all.

A special high weather-acute plane is on the ground at Schenectady, N.Y., awaiting the word that a hurricane has formed. The plane is specially equipped for "seeding" chemicals into a cloud, like a farmer plants wheat.

When the time comes, it will fly into one of the great storms, accompanied by one or more "bureau hurricane planes" from the Miami naval air station. The Miami plane will fly above the storm to photograph the effects of "seeding" by the weather-science plane.

Only a little of the chemical will be fed into the storm the first day, then photographs and observations will be analyzed before a heavier attack is made. The "busting" effort will be a one progressively heavier until scientists and navy men know what the effect will be.

The plan of attack has been worked out by Dr. Irving Langmuir, noted physicist, who has experimented with the precipitation of clouds into ice, snow and rain.

Employment Totals Reach New Peak

OTTAWA, Sept. 11.—(CP)—Employment totals, and payrolls too, were at an all-time high in Canada at the beginning of July, according to figures released yesterday by the Dominion bureau of statistics. How these totals would be affected by subsequent strikes has not been officially estimated yet.

Substantial increases in industrial employment at the beginning of July over a month earlier were reported by 17,700 employers in the eight major industrial groups. General improvement was indicated in all provinces and in most groups, both manufacturing and non-manufacturing.

Although the expansion was seasonal in character, the percentage gain in Canada, as a whole, was slightly above the average. The combined working force totalled 1,946,032 men and women, an increase of 40,841 persons, or 2.1 per cent over June 1 total. Weekly salaries and wages rose 2.8 per cent.

This and the following articles are taken from the Book of Knowledge and can be clipped for saving in a reference book.

WHERE AM I IN MY SLEEP?

No one is quite sure why we go to sleep at all, but probably the reason is that, while we are awake, we make something in our bodies which the blood carries to the brain, so as to put it to sleep.

If you ask what good we get by sleep, the answer is that the whole body rests, more or less—the brain, the heart, the lungs, the muscles, stomach, and all. Children need a great deal of sleep because they have to grow, and they do most of their growing during sleep. No one can do without it. Even very strong men who go without sleep for several nights become weak and unable to think clearly. You have perhaps heard of soldiers in long-drawn-out battles being an over-coming by drowsiness that they actually fell asleep while standing.

Now, as to where we are in our sleep. That is a question that baffles the wisest man. But we may be sure that as far as actually "going" is concerned, we remain right where we were when we slipped off into unconsciousness. While we are fast asleep we often seem to be going to many places, and doing all sorts of things. This is so every time we have a dream.

So, slight a thing as the wind outside or a leaf tapping on the windowpane may make us dream; but the commonest thing that disturbs us is our stomach. If we eat too much before we go to sleep, especially things that do not agree with us, then in the night they disturb the brain and make part of it wake up, though not so much as to make us know where we are.

Children need a great deal of sleep because they do most of their growing during sleep. No one can do without it for long.

Following morning drowsiness and tired, though he will probably not remember that he walked or talked.

HOW CAN WE TELL A STAR FROM A PLANET?

A star is a burning body like our sun, which looks so much bigger than the other stars merely because it is nearer to us. The same planet we give to the bodies which, like the earth, revolve round our own particular star, the sun. There are only a few of them. At night, the sky is full of stars, and the planets shine among them. They do not shine, however, with light of their own, but reflect the Vote Confidence In Greek Govt.

ATHENS, Sept. 11.—(CP)—The Greek parliament gave an overwhelming vote of confidence to the new cabinet headed by Liberal premier Themistokles Sophoulis. The count was 279 for the government and two against.

The vote followed a three-day debate on government policy, which was approved generally by all benches.

Today parliament discusses the law which would pardon every guerrilla who surrenders to government troops, with or without his arms.

Unconfirmed reports here said that when EAM (National Liberation Front) representatives called on Premier Sophoulis last night they proposed compromises with the government in an attempt to obtain release for all exiled Greeks.

Light of the sun. They are really very small bodies compared with the sun or the other stars. Yet some of the planets make a fine show in the sky, and the little one we call Venus often looks bigger than the real star. That is because it is much closer to us.

Now can we readily tell which of the stars are real stars and which are the dark lighted-up bodies which we call planets? The answer is that the planets shine with a steady, unvarying light, whereas the real stars seem to twinkle. The stars, although so enormous, are so far away that they appear to us merely as twinkling points of light.

Cigar Puffing Countless Off On 'North Safari'

FORT ST. JOHN, B.C., Sept. 11.—(CP)—A cigar-smoking, gun-toting big game hunter from Antwerp, Belgium, swung into the saddle yesterday and headed her 12 horse pack train into the wilderness back of Prophet's River on the Alaska Highway.

She is Madame Ann de Mithagen, who also doubles her nicotine pleasure with dairy puffs from a briar pipe. An expert at lion and elephant hunting in the Belgian Congo along with her husband, she is out for the British Columbia bear and moose with her well-matched, double-barrelled 45 rifle.

The trip is strictly solo for Madame de Mithagen, with the exception of a "safari" of native guides. She and her husband take turns on the big game trail, and this time it's hers.

New York delegates were not authorized to sign the Declaration of Independence until five days after July 4, 1776.

Victorian Order of Nurses Reports Unusually Successful Season At Inaugural Autumn Gathering Held at Masonic Temple Here

The Victorian Order of Nurses reported a successful summer of activities at the first meeting of the board of directors held recently in the hall of the Masonic Temple. Mrs. H. S. Curial, nurse-in-charge, presented the report.

Mrs. Curial stated that there had been an increase of more than 100 visits a month this summer over those made for the same period last year.

There was an average attendance of 160 persons to the pre-natal classes held each Friday afternoon during the summer months in the YWCA. Thirty new members were enrolled in these classes, at which the Club Victorian received reports.

Plans were made for a fashion show to be held in the 1700s Ballroom Oct. 1. Mrs. J. T. Thomas will convene this show, the proceeds from which will go to the Victorian Order of Nurses Scholarship fund.

The Victorian Order of Nurses is a public service, the nurses of the order being qualified for the work and anxious to be of service whenever and wherever they are needed.

Mrs. W. W. Edie, president, was in the chair.
